

FREE family fun at Penlee House Gallery & Museum

Free family activities take place every Saturday at the Gallery; drop in any time between 2.30pm and 3.30pm

Saturday 7 September

And the winner is...

The artist Alfred Munnings and his friends took part in horse shows. Award yourself first place and create a rosette to mark the occasion.

Saturday 14 September

Hidden faces

Come to the new exhibition, Creative Tensions, and see if you can spot the hidden face in Mary Jewel's painting Surrealist Head. Try your hand at making a face from your drawings.

Saturday 21 September

Spectacular sculptures

Barbara Hepworth's abstract sculptures are famous all over the world but were made in Cornwall. Use our special modelling material to create a mini sculpture.

Saturday 28 September

Line of sight

Though many of the artists in the Creative Tensions exhibition produced abstract art, they still sketched and used line in their works. Have a look at some of their drawings and produce your own using monochrome, or single colours.

Children must be accompanied by an adult

Saturday 5 October

Brilliant banners

Come and see Alice Moore's banner of St Ia and have a go at making your own banner out of felt!

Saturday 12 October

Bobbing Along

Artist Terry Frost used boat shapes in some of his paintings; you can even spot them in his more abstract works. Come and construct a scene with moving boats.

Saturday 19 October

Creative Collage

Choose from our selection of different colours and textures of paper and card to create a collage in the style of Ben Nicholson.

Saturday 26 October

Through the window

The Creative Tensions exhibition contains scenes of Cornwall both abstract and representational. Create a cardboard window frame and create the view. What will you see through your window?
